HIPAA PRIVACY RULE SUMMARY

Below is a summary of the HIPAA Act. For complete details and disclosures visit:

<http://www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/summary/privacysummary.pdf>

Protected Health Information: The Privacy Rule protects all "individually identifiable health information" held or transmitted by a covered entity or its business associate, in any form or media, whether electronic, paper, or oral. The Privacy Rule calls this information "protected health information (PHI)." "Individually identifiable health information" is information, including demographic data (e.g., name, address, birth date, Social Security Number), that relates to:

1. an individual's past, present or future physical or mental health or condition,
2. the provision of health care to an individual, or
3. past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual.

The Privacy Rule excludes from protected health information employment records that a covered entity maintains in its capacity as an employer and education and certain other records subject to, or defined in, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. §1232g.

De-Identified Health Information: There are no restrictions on the use or disclosure of de-identified health information. De-identified health information neither identifies nor provides a reasonable basis to identify an individual. There are two ways to de-identify information; either:

- 1) a formal determination by a qualified statistician; or
- 2) the removal of specified identifiers of the individual and of the individual's relatives, household members, and employers is required, and is adequate only if the covered entity has no actual knowledge that the remaining information could be used to identify the individual.

General Principle for Uses and Disclosures

Basic Principle. A major purpose of the Privacy Rule is to define and limit the circumstances in which an individual's protected health information may be used or disclosed by covered entities. A covered entity may not use or disclose protected health information, except either:

- (1) as the Privacy Rule permits or requires; or
- (2) as the individual who is the subject of the information (or the individual's personal representative) authorizes in writing.

IMPORTANT COMPANY POLICIES

We strive to provide you with the best personal care available. To make this possible we adhere to a set of very important guidelines. Please read them carefully, initial at every policy and indicate your agreement by signing at the bottom.

_____ A Referring Physician Script is necessary for proper reimbursement. The absence of a script and the possible non-reimbursement by the Insurance Company will make me (your name) _____ responsible for the charge.

_____ 24-Hour Advance Notice Fee: A minimum 24-hour advance notice is required in order to change/cancel an appointment. Anything less than that will result in a full-service fee charged to your account. . An allowance of only 1 missed/cancelled visit without 24-hour cancellation is made in dire circumstances.

_____ No shows: If you fail to show for your appointment without prior notice, all further appointments will be removed and a full-service fee will be assessed to your account. You may reschedule appointments again on a “first-come, first serve basis”.

_____ ALL payments are due in advance of your treatment session.

_____ Cell phones must be SILENT. We realize that emergencies may arise and therefore allow you to carry your cell-phone during your session, but please turn it to “silent” mode, to give yourself the full benefit of an undisturbed session.

- An Initial Evaluation on your first visit
- Physical therapy modalities using electrical equipment as per your need-about 20-25 minutes

- An exercise program, that may start on day 1 but typically starts on day 3-about 10 minutes

_____ TCPA Regulations: In keeping with the Telephone Consumer and Protection Act compliance regulations, you must agree to receive automated appointment reminders from our office before we start sending you these reminders.

_____ Updating Information: Any changes in your demographics, telephone # or insurance plans must be promptly shared with our office. This will ensure accurate generation of all insurance claims. Failure to do so may result in your claims being denied by your insurance company for timeliness. Consequently, as per the “assignment and release” signed by you, you will be responsible for all remaining dues.

I agree to all the policies on this form.
